Prelude

Assalamualaikum,

All Praises be to Allah Almighty, and blessings and peace be upon His Beloved, Prophet Muhammad s.a.w, his family, his companions and his descendants.

Our deepest gratitude and appreciation go to the individuals and groups who have contributed their time and effort in making the production of this book possible. May Allah bless and have mercy upon them.

Arabic transliteration has been included in this book for those who are unaccustomed to Arabic texts, so as to facilitate and enable them to recite the Maulid nonetheless. It is important to know that the transliteration is meant to encourage the process of learning and eventually the recitation of the Arabic texts with ease.

Finally, we hope that through the beautiful recitations, this book will instill in our hearts, Love for Allah and His Beloved, Prophet Muhammad s.a.w. May our remembrance of Allah Almighty and His Beloved s.a.w be increased with the Barakah of the Maulid and the Tahlil. May it open doors for us to attain and comprehend His Secrets, His Light, His Knowledge and ultimately to obtain the Intercession on the Day of Judgment.

Amin

Wassalam,

The Biography of Imam Ad-Daiba'i

One of the most distinguished and eminent Maulid texts in the Muslim World is the Maulid composed by a great scholar and expert in the science of Hadith. He is none other than, Imam Wajihuddin 'Abdur Rahman bin Muhammad bin 'Umar bin 'Ali bin Yusuf bin Ahmad bin 'Umar Ad-Daiba'i ash-Shaibani al-Yamani az-Zabidi ash-Shafi'i.

He was born on 4th Muharram 866H and passed away on Friday, 12th Rejab 944H. He was a revered scholar of Hadith and was unmatched by any other scholar in that time. He taught Sahih Bukhari completely, from cover to cover, beyond a hundred times. Imam Ad-Daiba'i attained the title of 'Al-Hafidz' in the knowledge of Hadith. The title is only conferred upon those who memorized 100,000 Hadiths and more, and with their complete chains of narration. Every day, he would go from mosque to mosque to teach the knowledge of Hadith. Amongst his teachers were the esteemed Imam al-Hafiz as-Sakhawi, Imam Ibnu Ziyad, Imam Jamaluddin Muhammad bin Ismail, and the Mufti of Zabid. Besides being a scholar of the Islamic sciences, he was also a Muarrikh - an eminent expert in History.

The birthplace of Imam Ad-Daiba'i Zabid, was renowned, even since the time of Prophet Muhammad s.a.w. In the year 8H, an entourage from the tribe of Ash'ariah came to Madinah from Zabid to embrace Islam. Delighted with their arrival, the Prophet s.a.w made du'a for Allah to bless the town of Zabid and repeated it three times. Till today, the tradition of acquiring and practising the sacred knowledge of Islam is still preserved and widespread in Zabid.

Under the guidance and tutelage of the Scholars from his household and the town of Zabid, Imam Ad-Daiba'i grew up, equipped with the specialization in various disciplines of knowledge, namely the knowledge of Qiraat, Arabic grammar, Mathematics, Inheritance, Fiqh and more. Upon returning from Haj in 885H, Imam Ad-Daiba'i specialized in the sciences of Hadith, learning the Sahih Bukhari, Muslim, Tirmidzi, and the Muwatta' of Imam Malik, under the tutelage of the great Shaykh Zainuddin Ahmad bin Ahmad as-Sharjiy r.a. It became a frequent practice of Imam Ad-Daiba'i to recite Surah Al-Fatihah and he highly encouraged this to his students and the common people to recite the Surah frequently.

Imam Ad-Daiba'i was a scholar who was productive in producing prolific writings. This is evident in the many great works he has written in various disciplines, in the Sciences of Hadith and even History. His most revered work is no other than, the Maulid Ad-Daiba'i, a compilation of eulogies and narrations of the blessed life of the Prophet Muhammad s.a.w. Imam Ad-Daiba'i dedicated and committed his entire life to benefiting those around him, teaching and writing books of the sacred sciences of Islam. May Allah sanctify his soul and allow us to benefit from him.

An Introduction to the Maulid

We begin with the name of Allah Almighty, and with praise and the invocation of peace upon His Beloved Messenger s.a.w, on his family and companions, and his followers in the way of Truth, against falsehood and injustice, up to the end of time.

The Maulid of the Prophet s.a.w is a commemoration of the birth of Prophet Muhammad s.a.w and some narrations of his life, and reflects his glorious and praiseworthy attributes and characteristics. It begins with the recitation of verses in the Quran regarding the sublime status and character of Prophet Muhammad s.a.w, as well as the sending of salutations and peace upon him. The great and revered scholars of Tafsir and Hadith (may Allah be pleased with them), such as Imam Yahya ibn Sharaf al-Nawawi, Imam Ibn Hajar al-Haithami, Imam Ibn Hajar al-Asqalani and more, all authored books on the virtues of the Maulid and evidences regarding its permissibility.

Amongst the aforementioned scholars, some of them even authored their own books on the Maulid of Prophet Muhammad s.a.w. Majority of the great scholars of the past and present have agreed that the Maulid gatherings possess five commendable actions which are recommended: recitation of the Quran, learning about the life and character of Prophet Muhammad s.a.w, making du'a and asking Allah, reminding each other regarding the days of Allah and last but not least, the gathering of Muslims in one location to do good and for goodness.

The True and Righteous Scholars all agree that the first person to celebrate the Maulid was the beloved uncle of Prophet Muhammad s.a.w, Sayyidina al-'Abbas ibn 'Abd al-Muttalib r.a. As narrated by al-Tabarani, al-Bazzar, Ibn 'Abd al-Barr in al-Isti'ab and Ibn al-Qayyim in Zad al-Ma'ad, after gaining victory and success in the Battle of Tabook, when The Messenger of Allah s.a.w arrived in Madinah, Sayyidina al-'Abbas r.a requested permission from the Prophet s.a.w to read a few stanzas in his praise, then The Messenger of Allah s.a.w said, "My dear Uncle! Go ahead. May Almighty Allah keep your mouth well."

Sayyidina al-'Abbas ibn 'Abd al-Muttalib r.a uttered, "Before you came to this world, you were excellent in the shadows and in the repository, in the time when they (Adam and Eve) covered themselves with leaves. Then you descended through the ages. When you were born, the earth shone and your light illuminated the horizon. We travel in that illumination and in the light and in the paths of right guidance."

The Maulid of the Prophet s.a.w has been celebrated in Southeast Asia for centuries and is even embedded in the traditions and the customs of the locals. For many countries, the 12th of Rabi'ul Awwal is even legislated as a public holiday so that Muslims would spend their day remembering the life and character of their Prophet s.a.w. Mosques and homes would be cleansed and decorated for the Maulid. In such gatherings, Muslims would do their best to share the blessings to those who are less fortunate by inviting them and providing food for the masses to eat, following the footsteps and Sunnah of the Messenger s.a.w. For the majority, the Maulid gatherings are not specific to the month of Rabi'ul Awwal, but it has become a monthly, weekly or even a daily affair for them. The major aim of the Maulid is to familiarise the public concerning the events that took place in the Prophet's s.a.w life, thus instilling in the hearts, love for Allah's greatest Beloved.

The texts of the Maulid of Prophet Muhammad s.a.w have many types. Some are composed in the form of poetry, with beautiful and noble verses, like the Qasidah Burdah of Imam Sharaf al-Din al-Busiri r.a, whereas some include recitations of the verses of Al-Quran and Hadith and are accompanied with Odes of Praise (Qasidah).

With the grace of Allah, Singapore's diverse Muslim community has held gatherings reciting many different Maulid texts for more than a hundred years. The following texts are often read and even memorized: Maulid Berzanji by Al-'Allamah Sayyid Ja'far bin Hasan Al-Barzanji, Maulid Ad-Daiba'i by Al-Hafiz Imam Abdurrahman Ad-Daiba'i, Maulid Simtud Durar by Al-'Allamah Habib Ali bin Muhammad al-Habshi, and more recently, Maulid Adh-Dhiya-ul Lami' by Al-'Allamah Habib Umar bin Hafidz. Also, the Subhanaa Maulid, believed to be written by Hujjatul Islam Imam Ghazali r.a and Manqoos Maulid by Al-'Allamah Shaykh Zainudden bin Ali al-Maqdoom are also widely recited. All these are the brilliant compositions and works of various renowned Saints and Scholars and each text possesses its own merits, special features and blessings. For example, the Prophet's s.a.w lineage till Prophet Ibrahim a.s was mentioned in the Maulid Berzanji, the compilation of various hadiths about the Light of Muhammad was mentioned in Maulid Simtud Durar and also, the eminence of Prophet s.a.w and his ummah was mentioned in Maulid Ad-Daiba'i.

Though there are various types of Maulid, all the great Imams who composed them would admit that no words are adequate to express and describe the glorious, praiseworthy and exalted station, attributes and characteristics of the Messenger of Allah. What more when Allah Himself mentioned about His Beloved in the Quran, in Surah Al-Anbiya, verse 107, "And We have not sent you, (O Muhammad), except as a mercy to all worlds."

Merits and Benefits of the Maulid

Al-Imam Ibnul Jauzi r.a. once said, “One of the benefits of Maulid is attaining peace throughout the year and a fulfilment of needs.”

Sultan Al-‘Arifin Al-Imam Jalaluddin As-Suyuti r.a, in his book, Al-Wasa‘il Fi Syarhi Ash-Syama‘il mentioned; “The house, mosque or place that Maulid is recited in, its occupants will be surrounded by Angels and will attain Allah’s Mercy.”

Verily, the Angels of Al-Mutawwaqun bin-nur (angels with necklace of Light namely: Jibril, Mikail, Israfil, Qirba‘il dan ‘Ina‘il), As-Soffun (angels in parade), As-Haffun (angels circling the Arash), and Al-Kurubiyyun (angels that assist people in hardship) will seek forgiveness for the people who recite Maulid.

The house of Muslims in which Maulid is recited in, will be given protection by Allah for its occupants from the following:

- drought
- pandemics
- fire breakout
- diseases
- calamities and disaster
- hatred
- jealousy
- evil eyes
- robbery
- When the person passes away, Allah will ease his affairs in the grave.
- Also, he will be placed amongst the high ranks in heaven, at the side of Allah, The Exalted and Most Powerful.

Verily, We have granted you (O Muhammad), a manifest victory

That Allah may forgive you what preceded of your sin and what will follow and complete His favour upon you and guide you to a straight path

And that Allah may aid you with a mighty victory (Al-Fath verses 1-3)

There has certainly come to you a Messenger from among yourselves. Grievous to him is what you suffer, [he is] concerned over you and to the believers is kind and merciful

*But if they turn away, [O Muhammad], say, "Sufficient for me is Allah; there is no deity except Him. On Him I have relied, and He is the Lord of the Great Throne."
(At-Taubah verses 128-129)*

Indeed, Allah and His Angels send blessings upon the Prophet. O you who believe, send your blessings and salutations on him with all respect. (Al-Ahzab verse 56)

O Allah, send salutations, grant peace and blessings upon him and his family

O Allah, send salutations, grant peace and blessings upon him and his family

(After Allah showed the Light of Muhammad, may Allah’s blessings and peace be upon him, in Heaven). Then the Angels asked (1) “Is that the Light of Adam?” (peace be upon him). Allah: “Because of this light, I gave Adam a high status.”

(2) Angels: “Is it Nuh?” (peace be upon him). Allah: “Because of him, Nuh was safe in his boat from drowning, and all his family and friends who disobeyed him perished.”

(3) Angels: “Is it Ibrahim?” (peace be upon him). Allah: “Because of him, Ibrahim was able to make his case against the worshipping of idols and stars.”

(4) Angels: “Is it Musa?” (peace be upon him). Allah: “Musa is his relative, but this man is the Love of Allah, and Musa (only managed to) speak to Him.”

(5) Angels: “Is it Isa?” (peace be upon him). Allah: “Isa only carried the good news about his Prophethood. Isa is the only admiral guard in front of the palace of his Prophethood.”

(6) Angels: “So who is this person, the beloved respectful one that You bestowed the rightful order? You bestowed him with the supreme throne and You waved many flags upon his leadership?”

(7) Allah: “He is the Prophet that I have chosen from the descendant of Lu’ai ibn Ghalib.”

(8) His father and mother passed away, he was looked after by his grandfather, then by his paternal uncle, Abu Tholib.

O Allah, send salutations, grant peace and blessings upon him and his family

(1) He was raised among the people of Tihamah; close to the Day of Reckoning; behind his back, there is a sign ; shaded by the clouds wherever he went. He was obeyed by the rain clouds. (2) His forehead shone like the morning, his hair was dark like the night. (3) His nose pointed like the letter ‘Alif’, his mouth like the letter ‘Mim’ and his eyebrows like the letter ‘Nun’. (4) He could hear the sound of the writing pen; he could see the seven stages of sky. (5) The camel kissed his two feet, and then the camel was removed of all its sufferings from its heavy load. (6) The Dhob (a lizard-like animal) believed in his status. Even the (Mimosa) trees gave salutation to him. And stones spoke to him. The stump of the date’s tree cried as if complaining to him. (7) It seemed that his two hands were blessed with food and drinks. (8) His heart was always attentive and never slept, but always guarding his duties and services towards Allah. (9) If he was disturbed, he forgave and never took revenge.....

Allah’s blessings appear as many as the stars in the sky
Upon Ahmad, the best (guide) in this excellent ride (camel)

Swaying in hearing the person who sang the name of the Beloved

Touching the emotions of those on the trail

Did you not see how it (camels in excitement) took wider steps

And tears flowed down from its eyes in happiness?

And it looked around for shade to hide its happiness

And longed for the place of history and play

Do not hold on the ropes nor lead it

For its (camel) longing for him, will lead it to the intended village (Madinah)

But you must also be engulfed in happiness like that of the camel

If not, you are not sincere in your love

*There, the sight of the village can be seen
 That is the sight of the top of the houses and tents at the village
 And that is the green dome
 In it, rests a Prophet whose light brightened up the darkness
 The blessings have been achieved, the meeting drew nearer
 And happiness has arrived from all sides
 Say to yourselves not to waste time
 Because in front of us is the Beloved, today there is no obstruction
 At ease when you are present with the Beloved
 Because happiness is achieved, and not the opposite
 This is the Prophet, Messenger of Allah, best of all creations
 Who has the highest status and most honourable position
 He who ranks high and respected
 He receives eternal honour and respect*

O Allah, send salutations, grant peace and blessings upon him and his family

(1) Glory to Allah who emphasised the importance of Rasulullah, may Allah’s blessings and peace be upon him, respect, his high position and ranking. (2) All praise belongs to Allah for all His bountiful gifts. (3) I bear witness that there is no god but Allah, the One and Only, no partner has He, the Lord of the East and West. (4) And I bear witness that our Master Muhammad, is His Servant and Messenger appointed to all men, non-Arabs and Arabs. (5) May Allah’s blessings and peace be upon him and his family and companions who did good deeds and received respect. (6) These Blessings and Salutations are perpetual, it is befitting that those who utter it will not be disappointed when they arrive on the day of Judgment.

O Allah, send salutations, grant peace and blessings upon him and his family

(1) We begin this Maulid with two narrations regarding the Prophet, whose status is high. (2) And of respectable descendants, and who took the straight path. (3) (Allah) The All-Hearing and All-Knowing, said with regards to him. (4) "Indeed, Allah and His Angels send blessings upon the Prophet. O you who believe, send your blessings and salutations on him with all respect."

O Allah, send salutations, grant peace and blessings upon him and his family

(1) The first Hadith was from a companion who was considered an expert, with an ocean of knowledge in the science of Quranic commentaries, an exemplary learned companion, our master Abdullah ibn Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, who narrated from the Messenger of Allah, may Allah’s blessings and peace be upon him, "Verily the Quraish was the light chosen by Allah, Glorious and Exalted is He, before He created Adam (peace be upon him) by two thousand years....

The Light (ruh of Muhammad) glorifies Allah and the Angels also glorify Allah following it. When Allah created Adam, He kept this light in the creation of Adam, peace be upon him.” (2) Said (Messenger of Allah), may Allah’s blessings and peace be upon him, “So Allah, The Almighty send down my light to the face of earth in the loins of Adam, peace be upon him. (3) And it was placed in the loins of Nuh, peace be upon him, when he was on the boat. (4) And placed me in the loins of Ibrahim, peace be upon him, when he was thrown in the fire. (5) That was how Allah moved me from noble loins and pure wombs, until He brought me out of my parents. None of them were ever joined together in fornication.”

O Allah, send salutations, grant peace and blessings upon him and his family

(1) The second Hadith or experience was related by Ata’a Ibn Yasar from amongst the Ka’abil Ahbaar. He said, “My father taught me the Book of Torah....

(2) When my father passed away, I opened the safe box and saw inside the section which read; There will come a Messenger at the end of time, born in Makkah, and emigrated to Madinah and sovereignty until Sham. (3) He cuts his hair and puts on a cloth around his waist. He is the best amongst the Prophets and his followers are the best amongst people. They glorify Allah with every honour bestowed on them. They keep straight rows during their prayers like they did in battles. The contents of their book is in their hearts, they praise Allah in difficult and good situations. (4) A third of them will enter heaven without their deeds being weighed.

﴿ O Allah, make us one of them ﴾

And a third will arrive with sins and wrong doings and they will be forgiven. And a third will arrive with the heavy sins upon them." (5) So Allah will order the Angels, "O My Angels go and weigh their deeds." The angels said, "O our Lord, we find these people doing injustice to themselves and their sinful deeds are like mountains. (6) However, verily they...

O Allah, send salutations, grant peace and blessings upon him and his family

(1) The Prophet, may Allah’s blessings and peace be upon him, was born already circumcised by the careful hands of Allah. (2) Eyes darkened with the kohl of guidance. (3) His light radiated throughout the desert. (4) And the cosmos was filled and lit up with his light. (5) And entered into his homage whatever remained from creation like those who embraced it previously. (6) The first mukjizat was that the Farsi’s fire flamed out and their palaces’ pillars collapsed. (7) All the Satan in the sky were shot with burning arrows of meteor. (8) Those who become mighty through efforts of jins retreated, they were turned to disgrace and submission by his might. (9) Whereas his radiant presence rose from the enactment of his light, and his beautiful light shone glaringly until he was presented to his nursing mother.

O Allah, send salutations, grant peace and blessings upon him and his family

(3) All the wild beasts said, "We have the rights (and more suited) so that we receive honour and glorification." (4) Then it was said, "O company of nations, calm down, verily Allah with His Wisdom has determined that the Prophet Muhammad s.a.w will have Halimah as his nursing mother."

O Allah, send salutations, grant peace and blessings upon him and his family

(1) As it happened, no one wanted to be his nursing mother, as was previously said, the invisible plan unfolded such that Halimah Binti Abi Zuaib, may Allah be please with her, was happy to be his nursing mother. (2) When she saw him, she quickly took the initiative to fetch him, place him (Muhammad s.a.w) on her lap, and cuddle him to her chest. (3) A smile appeared on his face for her,....

(17) Whenever he sat in a congregation, his aroma lingered for a few days even during his absence. (18) Pleasant fragrance was always with him even though he never used any perfumes. (19) If he walked amongst his companions, it is as if the moon was surrounded by flowers of stars. (20) Whenever he approached a place at night, his light appeared and the people felt as if it was daytime (zohr). (21) Rasulallah s.a.w was very generous with his charity and windfall. (22) He treated with kindness the orphans and widows. (23) Some companions said of his character; "I have not seen anyone more attractive with black turban and red cloak than he, Rasulallah s.a.w."

(1) It had been said by the people, "His face was like the full moon." (2) Then they said, "Even brighter than the moon with no shade of clouds. (3) He was overwhelmed with noble character, and he is where all perfection terminates." (4) Some people tried to explain his features by saying, "I have never seen anyone like him, before him or after him." (5) The eloquent tongue fails to describe his good character. (6) Transcendent is Allah Who placed (him) s.a.w in elevated and shining places, Who caused him to travel by night (isra') to the very close place (space of the bow) or nearer still. (7) (And Allah) supported him with infinite miracles. (8) (And Allah) equipped him with perfect qualities that are difficult to fully describe, and gave him five favours that were never given to anyone before. (9) And gifted with words which were concise but comprehensive. In short, no one could achieve his special status. (10) For him, there is appropriate speech in every place. (11) And all perfection originates from his perfection. (12) He was never refused to answer question nor puzzled by an answer. (13) His tongue never uttered anything but the truth.

(1) What more can be said of the person who was mentioned in the Al-Quran. (2) And whose qualities were made known in the Torah, the Gospel, the Book of Psalms and the Quran. (3) Allah, Glorious and Exalted is He, brought him (s.a.w) up to see and speak to Him. (4) And Allah honoured him by associating his name with that of Allah’s, to show and prove his high status. (5) Allah, Glorious and Exalted is He, made him the light and blessings for the entire universe, filled all hearts with happiness because of his birth.

O Allah, send salutations, grant peace and blessings upon him and his family

How can I describe your high status?*

*You are the One that rose above the high horizon
With your Light, you erased all falsehood*

*And with you, the universe is illuminated, O Flag of Guidance,
With lights, gifts and favours*

Allah’s salutations, my Lord, be upon you eternally Forever in the early morning and evening

And upon all your family and companions who Allah The Lofty of Loftiness, bestowed with perfection

O Allah, send salutations, grant peace and blessings upon him and his family

In the name of Allah, The Most Gracious, The Most Merciful

(1) All praise and thanks belong to Allah, Lord of All Worlds. (2) O Allah, bestow Your blessings and grant peace upon our Leader, Muhammad s.a.w, his family and all his companions. (3) Make us, O Allah, and all present amongst those who receive this intercession, and we hope for Allah's mercy and favour. (4) O Allah, with the honour of this great leader, his family and companions who took the right path, make us the best breed from his (ummah) people, cover us with his sanctity, gather us tomorrow in his group and use our tongue in praising and defending him. (5) Make us live clinging firmly to his Sunnah and obey him. (6) And make us O Allah, die loving him and his people. (7) O Allah, please make us enter heaven with him, for indeed, he is the first to enter it and descend us together with him onto its (paradise) castles, for verily, he is the first to descend upon it, and have compassion on us on the day he intercedes for all creation, for You have mercy upon all of them...

existence. Neither slumber, nor sleep overtake Him. To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on the earth. Who is he that can intercede with Him except with His permission? He knows what happens to them (His creatures) in this world, and what will happen to them in the hereafter. And they encompass not a thing of His Knowledge except for what He wills. His Kursi extends over the heavens and the earth, and He feels no fatigue in guarding and preserving them. And He is The Most High, The Most Great ﴿٧﴾*

To Allah belongs whatever is in the heavens and all that is on the earth. And whether you disclose what is in yourselves or conceal it, Allah will call you to account for it. Then He forgives whom He wills and punishes whom He wills. And Allah is Able to do all things

The Messenger (Muhammad s.a.w) believes in what has been sent down to him from his Lord, and (so do) the believers. Each one believes in Allah, His Angels, His books and His Messengers, (saying), "We make no distinction between any of His Messengers." And they say, "We hear and we obey. (We seek) Your Forgiveness, our Lord, and to You is the (final) destination."

Allah burdens not a person beyond his scope. He gets reward for that (good) which he earned, and he is punished for that (evil) which has earned. "Our Lord, punish us not if we forget or fall into error. Our Lord, lay not on us a burden like that which You did lay on those before us. Our Lord, put not on us a burden greater that we have strength to bear. Pardon us, grant us forgiveness, and have mercy on us (3x). Tahlil Du'a Translation

All praise is due to Allah, Lord of all Worlds, praise in the measure of His Blessings and commensurate with His increase of them. O our Lord, all grace is due to You, which is befitting to Your Glorious Presence and Your Great Sovereignty.

O Allah, send salutations upon our Master Muhammad, salutations with which we may be saved from all adverse conditions and misfortunes, with which all our needs may be fulfilled, with which we may be cleansed from all sins, with which may be raised to high spiritual ranks, and with which we may attain the best of all kinds of goodness in this life and in the hereafter. Exalted be You, we are unable to glorify You as You Glorify Yourself. Then for you is praise until it pleases You, and for you is praise when You are pleased, and for you is praise after You have become pleased.

O Allah, send salutations upon our Master Muhammad among the First, and send salutations and peace upon our Master Muhammad among the Last. And send salutations and peace upon our Master Muhammad in the heavenly assembly until the day of resurrection. And send salutations and peace upon our Master Muhammad until You inherit the earth and its content, and You are the Lord of Greatness who owns it.

O Allah, please endow, deliver and accept the reward of the deeds of what we have recited from the Great Al-Quran and from what we have chanted in tahlil from "La Ilaha Illallaah" and we seek forgiveness, and we recite from the words of Allah, and our salutations upon the Prophet Muhammad, may Allah's blessings and peace be upon him, in this moment of the blessings, as it is our gratitude and also to reach You. And the Mercy descending from You, the perfect blessings, it is our presentment to our Master Muhammad, Messenger of Allah, may Allah's blessings and peace be upon him. Then to his deceased wives, descendants, his companions and the firm believers. Also to the believers of the believers with goodness till the day of resurrection.

O Allah, grant rewards equal to the rewards with Your Kindness and Graciousness, upon the deceased, a means of why we have gathered here. And especially, to the soul of the late.....their heritage, their children and everybody that is affiliated to them.

O Allah, the rewards of the deeds are from us to be given to them, and make it as a light that illuminate and shine their surroundings. And extend, O Allah, Your Mercy and Your Pleasure upon us and upon them.

O Allah, make the rewards as an emancipation for them from the Hellfire, a saviour for them from the Hellfire, a shelter for them from the Hellfire and an atonement for them from the Hellfire.

O Allah, forgive them, have mercy upon them, save them and absolve them - (3x)

Then, grant rewards equal to the (same) rewards upon our deceased parents and our spiritual guides - and their parents and their spiritual guides, and all Muslims on earth from east to west. O Allah, make our sheets (book), the sheets (book) of our parents, the Masters who were present and their parents, prevailing and full of Your Mercy and Pleasure, and make us and them enter Your enormous Paradise, O The Ever-Kind One, O Giver, O The Creator of the heavens and the earth, O The Lord of Majesty and Bounty.

O Allah, transpose them from the distress of the grave to Your Paradise, the Eternal Garden, to a wide shelter with continuous flowing water and abundance of fruits with no limits and prohibition, and elevated beds with the ones who You have bestowed favour upon them, from the Prophets, the true believers, the martyrs and the pious ones. And excellent are those, as companions. With Your Mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful ones.

O reassured soul, return to your Lord, well-pleased and pleasing (to Him). Then enter among My servants. And enter My Paradise. Our Lord, give us in this world that which is good and in the hereafter that which is good, and save us from the torment of the Fire. And Allah's salutations be upon our Master Muhammad, his family and his companions and grant them peace, and Praise and Thanks to the Lord of the Universe.

Closing Du'a Translation

Our Lord, accept (this) from us. Verily, You are the All-Hearing, the All-Knowing. And accept our repentance. Verily, You are the One Who Accepts Repentance, the Most Merciful (Al-Baqarah verse 127-128). Their call therein will be, "Glory to You, O Allah", and their greetings therein will be "Peace" and the last of their call will be, "Praise and Thanks to Allah, Lord of the Universe" (Yunus verse 10).

Translation

In the name of Allah, The Most Gracious, The Most Merciful

All praise and thanks belong to Allah, Lord of All Worlds. O Allah, bestow Your blessings and grant peace upon our Leader, Muhammad s.a.w, his family and all his companions.

O Allah, open for them and us, the doors of goodness, the doors of safety, the doors of good health, the doors of pleasure, the doors of blessings, the doors of strength, the doors of affection, the doors of mercy, the doors of sustenance, the doors of knowledge, the doors of forgiveness, the doors of heaven, O Most Merciful of the merciful ones.

O Allah, verily we implore You to protect us in our religion, give us good health, an increase in knowledge, blessings of sustenance, repentance before death, mercy at death and forgiveness after death. O Allah, burden us not with the stupor of death, save us from the fire, and grant us forgiveness on the Day of Account.

O Allah, protect us from the calamities of this worldly life and the hereafter and protect us with the truth of the glorious Al-Quran and Your generous Prophet s.a.w from the evilness of this world and the punishments of the hereafter. May Allah forgive us and you with His Mercy, O the Most Merciful of the merciful ones.

Our Lord, make us not a trial for the wrongdoing people. And save us by Your Mercy from the disbelieving folk (Yunus: 85-86). Our Lord, bestow upon us from wives and our offspring who will be the comfort of our eyes, and make us leaders of the righteous (Al-Furqan: 74). Our Lord, bestow upon us mercy from Yourself, and facilitate for us our affair in the right way (Al-Kahf: 10). Our Lord, give us in this world that which is good and in the hereafter that which is good, and save us from the torment of the Fire (Al-Baqarah: 201).

And may Allah's blessings be upon our Master Muhammad, his family and his companions and grant them peace. Glory to You, Lord of the Supreme Power above what the infidels attribute to You, and peace be upon the Messengers, Praise and Thanks to the Lord of the Universe.

الله
